Narrative Writing

Sample: Fan Li's story

Fan Li was a famous politician, strategist and businessman during the Spring and Autumn Period. As a politician in Yue, he assisted the King of Yue wholeheartedly and put forward the policy of controlling the price of crops by the government to save the famine and relieve poverty. To avoid the worsening political situation, he resigned and started business, giving all his fortune rewarded by the king to the poor. Having been engaged in the agriculture and business by the sea for years in Qi, he accumulated a great fortune and always helped the poor villagers. Before leaving for Tao, he donated all his fortune to the villagers and did business successfully there. However, he didn't leave money behind for his offspring to prevent extravagantly spending. He used all his money to build up infrastructure to benefit people. Fan's charity work demonstrates the spirit of giving and selfless caring for people's livelihood.
