

Worksheet One

sort and match

example	type of adverbial clauses	meaning
1. Eleanor had a good time when she was visiting Rome.	time	to give a reason
2. The ceiling was so breathtaking that Eleanor couldn't tear her eyes away from it.	result	to express an aim or goal of an act
3. Although there is a large offering of food for tourists in Rome, not all of it is very good in quality.	concession	to indicate the result(s) of an act or event
4. She felt lucky because she also visited Amsterdam in the summer.	reason	to express a condition, real or imagined
5. You ought to pack a first-aid kit so that medical treatment can be given in an emergency.	purpose	to show when something happens
6. You must have a driver's license if you want to drive a car or travel around America.	condition	to show contrast between two statements

Worksheet Two

brain-storming -conjunctions

Type of adverbial clauses	example	conjunctions
time	She has stayed in the hotel since she arrived in Rome.	since, before, after, as, as soon as, while, when, until condition	We will not postpone the sports meeting unless it rains.	unless, if, as long as result	The book was so interesting that I couldn't tear my eyes away from it.	so...that, such...that reason	Since she is a tourist, she would like to have a guide.	since, because, as, now that concession	He is used to the package tour even though he dislikes the tight schedule.	even though, even if, although, though,
purpose	She has downloaded a travel planning app so that she can make an agenda for the summer vacation.	so that, in order that

Worksheet Three

Activity 1-blank filling

My Holiday

Last summer I had a wonderful time in Chicago as Eleanor did in Rome. I passed by sculptures and art works as/when I counted out steps and watched the time. In the distance, sea lions on the docks were begging for fish. But I could not get closer to them because/as I didn't have enough time, which was a pity. I took another walk the next day so that I could appreciate more works of art. Although/Though I had a tight schedule, I still spared some time for shopping. I strongly recommend you to do some research online before the trip if you want to taste some popular meals in a place. Anyway, it is such an attractive city that I will definitely visit it again.

Activity 2- Pair Work

Worksheet Four(Homework)

①sentence-combining

Example:

1.This tea is so good. I think I'll have another cup. (so..that)

Key: This tea is so good that I'll have another cup.

2.This is good tea. I think I'll have another cup.(such..that)

Key: This is such good tea that I think I'll have another cup.

3.Tom was walking to class. He ran into an old friend.(when/while)

Key: When/While Tom was walking to class, he ran into an old friend.

4.Rosa stepped into a hole and sprained her ankle. At that time she was paying attention to where she was going.(because)

Key: Rosa stepped into a hole and sprained her ankle because she was paying attention to where she was going.

5.Do you want to go for a walk? The rain has stopped. (now that)

Key: Now that the rain has stopped, do you want to go for a walk?

6.Tim's in good shape physically. He doesn't get much exercise. (even though)

Key: Tim's in good shape physically even though he doesn't get much exercise.

7.I'm going to stay home. It's cold tomorrow. (if)

Key: If it's cold tomorrow, I'm going to stay home.

8.Sam took lots of pictures on his vacation. He wanted to show us where he had been. (so that)

Key: Sam took lots of pictures on his vacation so that he could show us where he had been.

9.I won't allow you to use my car. You can use my car if you have a driver's license.(unless)

Key: I won't allow you to use my car unless you have a driver's license.

10.She's only three. Her mother dresses her in grown-up clothes. (although)

Key: Although she's only three,her mother dresses her in grown-up clothes.

②writing

My _____ Holiday

The six different adverbial clauses are required in your essay and focusing on one or two details may help make a good writing.

Sample:

The farthest place I have ever been to is the city of Kunming in Yunnan Province. It has been almost four years since I went there, yet I still remember it as if it just happened yesterday. I travelled with some of my classmates and our parents to celebrate our graduation from primary school. My friends and I were so excited that we chatted and laughed during the trip. Although now I do not see those friends quite often, every time we have the chance to meet, we never fail to talk about the thrill of the trip.

SCRELE