

Worksheet (Listening and Viewing)

I. Warm-up

II. Listening: Learning about Cultural Differences in Body Language

- Listen and choose the main idea of the programme: _____
 - A. Gestures differ from country to country in expressing similar ideas.
 - B. Similar gestures may have different meanings in different countries.
 - C. People often use their hands or heads to express their feelings.
 - D. People in different countries use different gestures to show disagreement.

- Fill in each of the blanks with no more than two words.

Using gestures to express what you are feeling is common in some countries but not in others. Shaking heads mostly means 'no,' but in some countries it can mean the _____. For example, in Greece, shaking heads mean _____; in Bulgaria, it means _____; and in India, it means lots of _____. Besides, in some areas of southeastern Europe, _____ means 'no.'

III. Viewing: "I Don't Care" vs. "I Don't Mind"

- Complete the dialogues with "I don't care" or "I don't mind" and read them out.
 1. – Do you mind giving a free ride to a stranger?
– _____.
 2. – Would you like to have tea or coffee?
– _____.
- Watch Part I of the video and choose the best answer.

The video is about the difference _____.

 - A. between tea and coffee
 - B. in making decisions in the US and the UK
 - C. between American and British English
 - D. in showing disagreement in the US and the UK
- Watch Part II of the video and complete the diagram.

IV. Reflecting on differences between American and British English

American English	British English
Sentence structures: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • One difference between American and British English lies in _____. • American and British people spell the word _____ differently. • American English is different from British English in pronouncing the word _____. • In American English, we use _____ to express _____, while in British English, we use _____ instead.

Worksheet (Assignments)

1. Finish Exercise IV on Page 26: Some gestures may convey different messages in different cultures. Give an example.
 - Do research online and find a gesture that shows cultural differences.
 - Prepare to present your findings in the next lesson.
2. Finish listening exercises on Pages 19-20 on the workbook.

SCRELE