

1. Q: What paraphrasing strategy is used in the following conversation?

A: How do you usually spend time with your friends?
B: Sometimes we meet, talk and play together. I like to listen to my friends, but I don't like to give them advice because I don't want to change them.
A: Let me put it in another way: you don't like to give them suggestions but listen to them while talking and playing together.
B: Exactly. I prefer listening to giving ideas.
A: Do you mean that you are a good listener, and not bossy or controlling?
B: I think so.

- ✓ changing the order of the ideas/ words
- ✓ changing the word/ grammatical form
- ✓ using synonyms for some words/ expressions

2. Q: What should be included in a checklist for interview conducting?

Checklist

- ☐ Does my interview include a beginning to brief introduce myself and the interview purpose?
- ☐ Does my interview include an ending to show my gratitude to my interviewee?
- ☐ Do I check the interviewee's answer through the paraphrasing strategy of:
 - changing the order of the ideas/ words
 - changing the word/ grammatical form
 - using synonyms for some words/ expressions?

Assignments:

1. Upload the recording of a group interview on friendship to the Wechat group.
2. Sum up the views on friendship of another group and comment on the effectiveness of the interview.